

EnAbling Change Program

Providing grants for projects that promote accessibility and help make Ontario more open to people of all abilities

Quick facts

230+

accessibility projects funded since 1999

14

organizations received grants in 2024-25

Projects may include:

- creating customized educational tools and resources about accessibility and inclusion in specific sectors
- promoting accessibility in daily living
- encouraging compliance with accessibility requirements
- developing public outreach programs and initiatives

Learn more about the EnAbling Change Program:

- Find general information at ontario.ca/EnAblingChange
- Send specific questions about the program to EnAblingChange@ontario.ca

Additional facts

- The EnAbling Change Program provides funding to not-for-profit organizations, including industry organizations, professional associations, and municipalities to develop and implement projects that promote accessibility.
- In 2023-24, Ontario supported 14 organizations with grants of up to $150,000 for a total of approximately $1,400,000.
- Learn more about how to apply for Inclusive Community Grants and other programs through ontario.ca/GetFunding.

Follow us on social  @SeniorsON  @SeniorsOntario  @Seniors and Accessibility